UNIQUE EXPERIENCES

Sometimes luxury is not just the accommodation.

WELCOME TO THE WORLD OF VICTOURS

WHAT WE DO

We believe that nothing can replace the unique experiences travelling offers. Go places you have never gone before and soak up the culture, the flavours and the lifestyles. If you have already been there, it's time to revisit and experience the destination our way.

We are the premier provider of travel to Italy. Over the years, we have complemented our Italian product with France, Greece, Spain, Portugal, Croatia and Iceland. And now, we are taking reservations for Africa and India too!

The invaluable time and effort we put into the research and design of our offerings makes Victours the leading provider of quality in travel. For 60 years, our service and reliability has provided Canadian travel agents and their clients with the Gold Standards they have come to expect. Your travel could be as fast-paced as you want or simply relax in stunning locales for a few days at a time; the choice is entirely yours.

GETTING THERE

They say that getting to your destination is half the fun! Each year, VICTOURS' Air Department handles thousands of flights for clients. Routing flights from North America to long-haul destinations such as Africa and the Indian Subcontinent can be complicated. We do all possible to find non-stop and direct flights or shorter layovers, better connections and faster ways to get you there and back in the most cost-efficient manner.

We often have special First, Business, Premier Economy and Economy fares around the globe, for additional value.

GROUPS

Having catered to hundreds of groups over the years, we are specialists in group travel. Whatever your interest, we invite you to discuss the possibilities. We will work with you from concept to fruition, assisting you with marketing, advertising and promotions to help get participants registered. Whether it is family, friends, clubs, associations, sport fans, alumni or special interest groups, we will arrange special group travel concessions for you.

NOT INCLUDED IN THE ITINERARIES

International airfares and related taxes and fees, meals not mentioned in the itinerary, alcoholic and non-alcoholic beverages, bottled water and soft drinks unless mentioned in the program, any gratuities, items of a personal nature e.g., telephone/internet charges, room service, etc., optional excursions, items not mentioned in the programs, and travel and medical insurance.

OUR PROMISE

When creating your holiday experiences in the destinations that we offer, our promise to you is to deliver a quality product at a competitive price that fits your budget.

(SELF-DRIVE)

9 DAYS - 8 NIGHTS

Day 6, Burgundy — Vezelay — Fontainbleau — St. Sephorien Le Chateau: Bidding farewell to the Château de Gilly, you're off through Avallon to Vézelay's 12th century Abbaye Sainte-Marie-Madeleine de Vézelay, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. It holds the relics of the revered Saint Mary and was a starting point for medieval pilgrims en route to Santiago de Compostella. Then move north, passing Auxerre. Near Nemours, you could easily side-trip to the forest and Château of Fontainebleau. Passing through, you'll reach tonight's resting-spot, the fairytale-like Château d'Esclimont (built 1543) in St. Sephorien le Château.

Day 7, St. Sephorien Le Chateau — Chartres — Orleans/Blois — Tours: Today, visit Chartres with it's world-famous cathedral, the most beautiful and largest in Europe, then Orléans or Blois, both royal domains from the 10th and 15th centuries. Tonight you will stay at the elegant Château d'Artigny in Montbazon, just south of Tours.

Day 8, Montbazon — Chambord — Chenonceau — Montbazon: This morning you travel to the Château de Chambord, with its fantastic roofscape of towers, cupolas, gables, lanterns and chimneys. Begun in 1518 by François I, it's reputed to have been designed by Leonardo da Vinci. Then it's a short drive to the refined Château Chenonceau, a mid-river château spanning the Cher. This residence of the wives and mistresses of kings and nobility reflects a feminine influence and has retained its delicate late-Renaissance style. From Chenonceau it's a short drive back to Château d'Artigny for a second luxurious night.

Day 9, — Montbazon — Villandry — Tours — TGV Paris: From Montbazon, drive to Villandry, the last great French Renaissance château built in the Loire Valley; or to Azay le Rideau, designed to look like a Gothic fortress (26 km from Tours). Drive back to Tours to drop off your rental car at the TGV station and high-speed-it back to Paris.

EXCLUSIVE CROATIA

The popular TV series Game of Thrones has given Croatia a boost in its popularity to become a must-see destination. Its location, climate, scenic beauty and stunning green lakes in contrast to the clear turquoise waters of its coastlines, all combine to make Croatia a sought after destination.

Croatia's cuisine is also popular, having been influenced by the Hungarians, Italians, Turks and others. An ingredient-rich land with fresh produce, delicious local seafood, and its famous Pag cheese, Croatia's cuisine rivals that of its Mediterranean neighbours.

Day 2, Orak Island - Cokertme: On board, our staff will explain the vessel and lay out your itinerary. First stop, Orak Island, where you can take a dip in the gorgeous crystal-blue waters. Then to Cokertme, a small, picturesque fishing town walled by precipitous slopes, for an overnight stay. If weather permits, we will use the sail on the way back! Check out the town, maybe pick up a camel ride, or, as the village has many carpet weavers, a handmade carpet to take a bit of Turkey home with you.

Day 3, Seven Islands (Kufre/uUzun Liman -Long Port) - English Harbour: Another excellent day cruising to Seven Islands! Located between the capes of Teke Burnu and Taneli Burnu, this beautiful area is filled with many small islands and coral reefs. Gunluk Forest, right by the shore, is criss-crossed with trails. It's famous for its storax trees - which produce a sweet, medicinal gum.

Day 4, Cleopatra Island - Karacasogut: Cruise to Sedir (Cedrae) Island, also known as Cleopatra Island - so-named for Cleopatra, who reputedly commanded that the perfectly spherical sand of its famous beach be brought here from the Red Sea in Egypt. Whether-or-not this is true, this lovely island with its uniquely-sanded beach and unbelievably clear water is worth the visit. Then cruise to Karacasogut village for a fresh sea-food dinner and overnight anchoring.

Day 5, Longoz — Tuzla: A morning swim will soon become a part of your daily activities! For lunch, you'll cruise to Longoz Bay; another paradise-like bay, sheltered amongst huge pine forests. Enjoy a short forest walk to take a lunch of local delights at the shed-like Ali Baba's cafe.

Day 6, Kargili — Kisebuku (Alakisla Buku): Early morning and you're in Kargili Bay anchored at Kisebuku. Here you can see the remains of its Byzantine monasteries. Afterwards, time for more sunning, swimming and relaxaing!

Day 7, Pabucurnu — Yaliciftlik — Bodrum: Today you're off to Pabucburnu. You're sailing among ancient routes: in 2002, the remains of a 6th-century BCE vessel was excavated from the pristine waters off Pabucburnu. Then, you are back to Bodrum to overnight.

Day 8, Bodrum: It's time to leave. Reluctantly you depart, tanned, relaxed and with a wealth of memories - but not before one last, on-board breakfast!

EXCLUSIVE ENGLAND

With history that stretches back more than 5000 years (and likely long before), England is a place where the past is a constant presence. Castle ruins perch on lonely hilltops. Mysterious menhirs (prehistoric standing stones), barrow tombs and stone circles sit in the corners of forgotten fields. Medieval cathedrals, regal palaces and improbably ostentatious stately homes seem to appear with bewildering regularity. And every English city, town and village has its own individual tale to tell: a sprawling, historical epic of kings and commoners, industrialists and inventors, eccentrics, dreamers and rebels that is as fascinating — and surprising — as anything Shakespeare, Dickens or JK Rowling could dream up.

8 DAYS - 7 NIGHTS

Balmoral Castle

Day 1, Edinburgh Arrival: Arrive into Edinburgh or Glasgow Airport, and pick up your car at the car rental desk and drive a short distance to your castle or manor house hotel, set in beautiful grounds on the outskirts of Edinburgh. Spend the remainder of the day enjoying your hotel and its facilities, or head into Edinburgh to start exploring Scotland's capital city. Overnight in Edinburgh area.

Day 2, — Edinburgh: Today you have a full day to soak up the atmosphere of this exciting city, with many shops, pubs and restaurants, as well as a good selection of activities to choose from. You can explore the beautiful capital city of Scotland on a sightseeing tour or on foot, to see the orderly streets and mansions of the New Town, and the cobbled, medieval streets of the Old Town. Edinburgh Castle is situated high above the city on an extinct volcano, and houses the Crown Jewels of Scotland. Visit the castle or the Palace of Holyroodhouse, the Royal Family's official residence in Scotland. For whisky connoisseurs, don't miss the Scotch Whisky Experience at the top of the Royal Mile. Overnight in Edinburgh area. (B)

Day 3, St. Andrews - Aberdeenshire - This morning leave Edinburgh and drive to cross the Queensferry Crossing with its dramatic views over the Firth of Forth. Head east to St Andrews, the home of golf. Explore the beautiful university town on foot, and have your photo taken standing on top of the Swilcan Bridge on the Old Course. If you would like to play golf, you can enjoy a round on the Himalayas, the practice course next to the Old Course. Continue north across the Tay Bridge, and you have the option to visit Glamis Castle, the childhood home of the Queen Mother, or Dunnottar Castle, one of the most dramatically situated castles in Scotland this afternoon. Check into your manor house hotel in the Aberdeen area.

Day 4, — Royal Deeside - Today you have a full day to explore Royal Deeside, a magnificent valley of the river Dee and home to the Royal Family's Highland retreat, Balmoral Castle. You can choose to visit Balmoral when the Royal Family are not in residence. There are several other castles in the area for you to explore. You can wander through the colourful gardens of Crathes Castle, a classic fairytale castle, or discover nearby Drum Castle with its 13th century tower and fine Jacobean mansion house. Spend some time exploring the villages on Royal Deeside as well, all with their own distinct character. Ballater is the nearest town to Balmoral Castle, which explains the many "By Royal Appointment" signs that you will see on local shops and businesses. Beautiful Braemar is an attractive Highland village overlooked by the majestic Cairngorm Mountains. This is where members of the British Royal Family attend the Braemar Gathering every year. Return to your manor house hotel to relax before dinner. Overnight in Aberdeen area.

Day 5, Malt Whiskey Trail - Travel north towards Inverness. Follow the Malt Whisky Trail and visit some of the distilleries behind the world's most famous, and some would say, finest malt whiskies. Speyside is a must visit destination for any whisky lover, and this is where you find Glenfiddich, Macallan, The Glenlivet and several other famous distilleries along the river Spey. The area is also home to magnificent castles, such as Cawdor Castle, considered the most romantic castle of the Highlands, and Brodie Castle, connected to the Jacobite story. Continue to your castle hotel in in the Inverness area.Overnight in the Inverness area.

Day 6 — Highlands - Today, enjoy your day in the Highlands. Why not head north west to visit the famous Inverewe Gardens, the most northern Botanical Garden of the world. Or head north to visit Dunrobin Castle, a fairytale castle resembling a French chateau with its towering conical spires. You can choose to stay in the Inverness area to visit Culloden Battlefield, or stroll around Inverness, the capital of the Highlands. If you head south, you can take a ride on the Cairngorm Mountain Railway, to explore one of Scotland's two national parks, or choose to take a cruise on Loch Ness, a short drive from Inverness. Overnight in the Inverness area.

Day 7, — West Coast - Loch Lomond / Glasgow - Leave Inverness and drive alongside the legendary Loch Ness to Urquhart Castle which dates back to the 12th century, magnificently situated on the banks of Loch Ness. Follow the Caledonian Canal along Loch Lochy to Fort William. The town is set in the shadow of Ben Nevis, Britain's highest mountain. Continue through Glencoe, one of Scotland's most legendary glens, and across rugged Rannoch Moor. Drive along Loch Lomond, the largest lake in Britain and known for the tranquil beauty of its wooded shores and islands. Check in to your hotel in the Loch Lomond or Glasgow area and enjoy a final evening in your luxury hotel.Overnight in the Loch Lomond / Glasgow area.

Day 8,Goodbye - Return your hire car at Edinburgh or Glasgow Airport and take your flight home.

TERMS & CONDITIONS

When you book with 375645 Ontario Ltd., doing business as VICTOURS, the following Terms and Conditions become part of your contract with us. You should therefore read the Terms and Conditions before booking your tour.

DEPOSIT & PAYMENTS

A non-refundable deposit of 30% of the amount is due at time of booking. Full payment must reach our office 45 days prior to date of first service.

CANCELLATION PENALTIES

- up to 46 days prior to departure: Loss of deposit
- between 45 days and 21 days prior to departure: 50% of total cost
- 20 days prior or no show: 100% of total cost

BOOKING

Prices are in Canadian dollars unless otherwise stated and are subject to change without notice. We reserve the right to cancel your booking if not paid in full by due date.

TRAVEL INSURANCE

VICTOURS strongly recommends that you purchase travel insurance, including coverage for at least trip cancellation and out of Canada health coverage.

PAYMENT

We accept Mastercard, Visa and American Express in Canadian dollars only and your verbal authorization for use of your card indicates your compliance with all of these Terms and Conditions and confirms your reservation without the need for you to sign for the purchase.

SPECIAL REQUESTS

We will pass along all special requests and other requirements but these are strictly at the discretion of the supplier, cannot be confirmed prior to your departure and may require additional payments in destination. We cannot control and are not responsible if special requests are not fulfilled.

SPECIAL NEEDS

We must be advised of special passenger needs at the time of booking and we will try to accommodate them but cannot confirm a reservation until all travel suppliers have acknowledged that they can provide the services requested. There may be a charge for some services and suppliers may deny boarding if prior notification of the special needs is not given — even with a medical certificate.

INFLIGHT SERVICES

Charges may apply to inflight services, including internet connection and/or entertainment.

BOOKING CHANGES

If you change your booking more than 45 days prior to departure an administration fee of $50 (including GST/HST) will apply. Correction of a name, change of name, change of a departure date or change of the type of tour, made within 45 days of departure makes the booking subject to full applicable cancellation charges. Air tickets that have been issued may have separate conditions, please refer to the terms and conditions provided on your flight ticket. Changing all names on a file constitutes a cancellation. If rooming requirements are altered due to a cancellation by one or more passengers, the passengers still travelling must pay the applicable rate for the accommodation to be occupied. Once travel has commenced, NO changes to the booking are permitted. The vacation packages are prepared months in advance, and sometimes one of the advertised services or locations is modified or not available. On occasion after your booking is confirmed, we may have to make changes to the services that are part of the package. Most often this will be minor, however we may have to make a Major Change before you depart.

Major Change includes:

- change of destination;
- change of time of departure or return by more than 24 hours;
- change of the standard of the accommodation;
- increase in the cost of the vacation package of more than 7% (unless government imposed);
- change of route necessitating other identification or documentation when there is insufficient time to meet these requirements before departure; and
- an error in our rates.

If we have to make a Major Change, we will advise you or your travel agent and you may:

- accept the change;
- select one of our alternate vacation packages at the applicable price;
- or cancel completely and obtain a full refund of the price you paid.

Sometimes the hotel you choose will not be available because of unexpected maintenance or overbooking. If this is the case, we will provide a substitute hotel, of equal or greater standard. If we are obliged to downgrade the accommodation, and you accept that offered change, we will provide you with a refund. We reserve the right to change our published prices without notice and to pass on to you all government imposed taxes, transportation fees and surcharges, including fuel and currency fluctuations. We may not be able to refund you in full for changes that are made for reasons of Force Majeure, namely war or threat of war, riots, civil disturbances, terrorist activity, industrial disputes, natural and nuclear disasters, fire, weather causing beach erosion, epidemics or health risks, technical or mechanical problems with transport, flight delays due to weather, government action, closed or congested airports or seaports, supplier insolvency and any events beyond our control.

If you cancel the following charges apply from the date we are advised of your cancellation. The calculation of the cancellation amount does not include the day of departure. More than 45 days 30% of total price; 45-21 days 50% of total price; 20 days and no-show 100% of total price. Cancellation charges include GST/HST and are effective from the day that we record your cancellation notification. We may re-sell any cancelled seats or accommodation without refund to you.

YOUR PACKAGE

Your package includes only the travel services purchased. All other details are provided for your information only and are not included in the price of your package. The features included may vary and are subject to withdrawal by the hotel. Activities are on a first-come, first-served basis and are subject to the availability of equipment. Daily activity programs are subject to an adequate number of participants and a reservation in the destination may be required. Capacity for any activity may be limited during busy seasons and all activities take place based on the weather being appropriate. The sporting and social activities are provided on a complimentary basis by the hotel and are not included in the price of your package unless specifically indicated. Drinks will only be available during bar opening hours. À la carte meals may be limited to one or two per week and a reservation is usually required. No bonus features have any cash value and room upgrades are strictly on a space availability basis when you check-in.

You will not be provided with a refund for any part of an unused vacation package.

The photographs we use are representational only and are not a guarantee that everything will be exactly as depicted at the location on arrival. Any drive times are approximate.

TERMS & CONDITIONS

PROBLEM HANDLING

If you encounter any issues or have a complaint while at the destination, you must advise the local representative or hotel management immediately to provide an opportunity to investigate and/or resolve your complaint. If for any reason your complaint is not resolved during your vacation, you must notify us within 30 days of returning from your vacation. Failure to adhere to these notification guidelines may affect the timeliness of our response, the accuracy of our investigation, and will be a consideration in reviewing the options to resolve your complaint. VICTOURS is not responsible for any representations made by travel agents, hotel employees, independent contractors or suppliers of any kind. No agent or representative of VICTOURS may waive any provisions of these Terms & Conditions. The invalidity of any of these terms or conditions shall not affect the validity of any other provision.

OUR RESPONSIBILITY

VICTOURS makes arrangements with independent contractors such as airlines, transfer operators, hotels & other suppliers that provide the services that you purchase as part of your package. Although we take care in selecting these suppliers, they are all independent parties and we have no control over them and are not responsible for their acts or omissions. Services provided by these independent parties are subject to applicable Provincial travel industry acts and the regulations thereunder, together with, where applicable, any conditions imposed by the independent parties and as such, their liability is limited by their tariffs, conditions of carriage, tickets and vouchers and international conventions and agreements. VICTOURS is not responsible for any loss, damage or injury, whether physical or mental, or to property, resulting from any delay, substitution or deficiency of quality of equipment or service, or any act, omission, or negligence of any of these independent parties, their agents, servants, employees or subcontractors supplying any of the services herein or for any claims for such loss, damage, or injury, whether physical or mental, arising therefrom, or from any claim that arises by reason of any action or omission of any party other than VICTOURS.

LIMITATION OF OUR LIABILITY

The liability of VICTOURS for any loss, damage or injury, whether physical or mental, arising from its own acts, omissions or negligence, is limited to the price of the services purchased.

PRIVACY

We are committed to protecting your privacy and have developed a policy and related procedures to do so. You can find our privacy policy at www.victoursinternational.ca.
